

ST.JOSEPH'S ACADEMY

Zonal Level Essay Writing Competition

Date- 18.07.26

St. Joseph's Academy, Savita Vihar, Delhi, successfully hosted the Zonal Level English Essay Writing Competition, bringing together students from various schools across the zone. The event was organised to promote creative writing, critical thinking, and effective expression among young learners.

The competition was conducted smoothly with excellent planning and coordination. Students participated enthusiastically in four categories— Junior Boys, Junior Girls, Senior Boys, and Senior Girls. Separate essay topics were provided to each category according to their age group and level by the judges. Topics for

Junior Category -

1.) Junior Boys/ Girls

Holistic Development and responsible citizenship.

Senior Category-

2.) Senior Boys / Senior Girls

Bridging generations: what young people can learn from elders in a changing world.

The event concluded successfully, showcasing the participants' creativity, knowledge, and writing skills. The school appreciates the efforts of the organising committee, judges, teachers, and all participants for making the competition a grand success.